The Small Business Development Center has been a huge part of helping businesses grow throughout Colorado. Join the Eastern Plains Chamber as they partner with SBDC in the August Lunch & Learn at the High Prairie Library
Introduction to the SBDC:
The Pikes Peak Small Business Development Center (SBDC) offers free, confidential consulting and low- or no-cost training to support entrepreneurs and small businesses at every stage—from startup to growth and beyond. Services include expert guidance on business planning, marketing, financial forecasting, funding, and government contracting. Through hands-on workshops, one-on-one advising, and specialized programs like LEADING EDGE™ and Start-Up Day, the SBDC helps business owners build strong foundations, access capital, and scale successfully. With deep local connections and a commitment to small business success, the Pikes Peak SBDC is an essential resource for anyone looking to launch, grow, or strengthen their business.

This is a bring your own lunch event.
